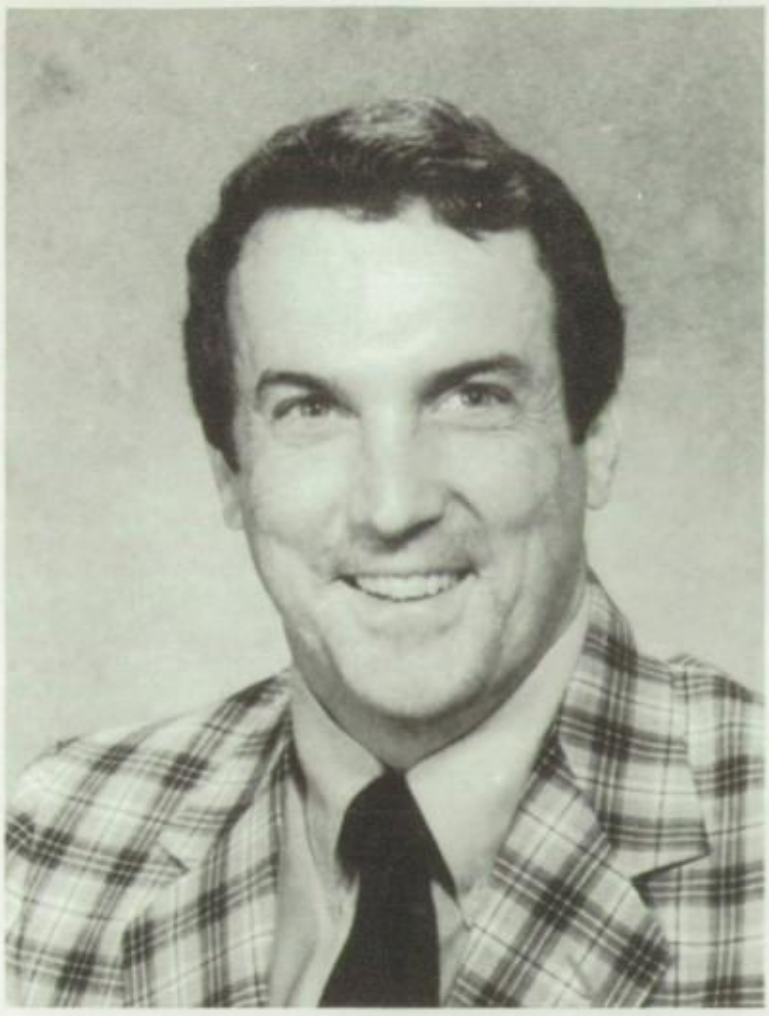
SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE



RICHARD TROUT
SUPERINTENDENT

As you look at your "1984 Cardinal" ten years from now, certainly times will have changed, styles will be different and we will claim to have progressed into the 1990's.

However, when we think about it, where would we be without the beginning that our Country got over two centuries ago, not only in the field of education, but in a lifestyle of which we can be proud.

Let us not forget our background and use each opportunity given us, to better prepare for the future.

P. T. O. CORONATION

Before an impressive black backdrop of twinkling lights, silver stars and globes, third graders Sherry McCoy and Shawn Seabaugh were recently crowned Woodland PTO Queen and King for 1983-84.

Mrs. Jane Marquis, who was in charge of the lovely decorations, also served as mistress of ceremonies.

First runners up were first grade students Jessica Allmon and Derek Gaines, and second runners up were fifth graders Kelli Derton and Mackey Smith.

Other class representatives were kindergarten students Kim Nanney and Steve Jordan, second graders Stephanie Dueker and Kevin Rhodes, fourth graders Carrie Brown and Phillip Smith, sixth graders Jody Thiele and Rusty Brown, and seventh graders Kim Sperling and Danny Simmons.

Also, eighth grade candidates were Shelby Doerhoff and Brian Derton, ninth graders were Lisa Hahn and Thor Hurst, tenth graders were Mirenda Marquis and Jeff Abernathy, eleventh graders were Cindy Kimbel and Albert Arnzen, and twelfth grade candidates were Cindi Baker and Brian Haas.

Preceeding the coronation, business meeting of the PTO was conducted by president Theresa Eckerle.

Scholarship Committee chairman Diane Self presented the Woodland PTO Cash Scholarship to senior Cindy Mayfield. As Cindy graciously accepted her scholarship, she said she plans to attend SEMO University in the fall.

Patti Barrett, chairman of the School Gift Committee reported the PTO also plans to make a cash gift toward a concrete pad to be constructed on the elementary playground.

Retiring president Eckerle conducted the impressive installation ceremony for the 1984-85 Woodland PTO Officers. Duly installed were president Deanie Givens, vice president Mary Brown, secretary Sandy Fox, and treasurer Sharon Lutes.

We regret that pictures of the Student Council Christmas Dance and of Snow King and Queen - SHAWN ANGLE and SHARI HASTINGS could not be reproduced.
